1869 Gauge in the garden border opposite the 3 bedd<sup>d</sup> not be better exposed than it is to the fall of rain from any quarter notwithstanding the excessive drought of last summer (1869) the crops have been abundant in this very hilly neighbourhood situated on the borders of Dartmoor and 700 or 1000 ft + 52 Turnips & Mangolds turned out splendidly whilst they almost failed in the low country, the soil on these hills is very deep in many places & rich, and is easy to till either during wet or dry weather.
