

RAINFALL AT Chester

The New Monthly Magazine for 1875. Vol. III. p. 337

Observer A. Naturalist

Rain { By

Gauge { Diameter.....in. Height above Ground,.....ft.....in. Above Mean Sea Level.....ft.

YEAR.....										MEANS.
				1814
January.....				1.10
February.....				.60
March.....				1.90
April.....				1.70
May.....				.90
June.....				1.50
July.....				1.20
August.....				2.20
September.....				.70
October.....				1.70
November.....				2.10
December.....				1.90
TOTALS				17.50

*

* There is a great want to the following effect:—It is much to be wished that a regular series of monthly and Annual Meteorological Observations for the last 25 or 30 years were collected and published. In London such a collection might easily be made, and a ready sale would cover the expense."